“ I got to know ashley briefly while we were both incarcerated in Effingham. She had an amazing spirit. We became so close in such a short amont of time. I unfortunately spent my birthday being incarcerated but Ashley made sure that it was a good one. She left me some pictures of herself and made me a goodbye card. I cant believe shes gone. My heart breaks everyday. Im praying for her family and loved ones

“ Dear Ashley, So So Sorry to hear of YOUR departure from All of Us. You had a pure heart and YOU, Dear Child was Loved. So So Sad for Colby and Gracie at such young ages to lose Their Mother. My Heart hurts and grieves for YOU and for YOUR Children, Your Parents and Sister, too. Only GOD knows the true hearts of HIS Flock. Surly, GOD needed YOU, back with HIM. Forever My Little Friend,  always.

“ God, bring comfort and peace. Peace is your essence. Peace is your name. Bring peace to this family who has lost their precious child in death. We come to you, God because we know that you sorrow, and are acquainted with grief. You too have endured the loss of a child. You empathize. We can't help but ask, "Why?" Forgive our insistence, our confusion, even our anger. We believe that you are just, and we ache to understand how this tragic death is an expression of that justice, how it expresses your love. We also know, in our minds, at least that you seldom answer the "why?" question. We press you, but on these matters you are mostly silent. What we ask instead is "how?" How can we move forward? How can this bring us together and not tear us apart? How can we now live under the shadow of this untimely death? Answer this prayer with your comfort and guidance. There is no way to remove the pain. The grief is real. The only sanity is to know, to believe, in a life beyond with you, when all the scales are righted and the sufferings are made good. We trust you and your promise that while this child's life on earth is done, his life beyond has just begun. With that release we lose her and let her go into your arms, then by faith receive in return the boundless comfort of your presence. Praying so hard for this sweet family!
