

Belva Eugenia Barringer

January 20, 1962 - July 13, 2025

January 20, 1962 to July 13, 2025

Belva Eugenia Barringer (Genie) died from pneumonia in Florence, SC at McLeod Hospital on July 13, 2025.

Genie, youngest child of John Laurence Barringer III and Hannah Kendall Barringer, both deceased, is survived by her 4 siblings: Hannah Robertson Barringer, John Laurence Barringer IV, Julia Haynsworth Barringer and Julian Kendall Barringer. She was Aunt Genie to five much-loved nephews and nieces.

We love her immensely.

An accomplished pianist, she explored other artistic venues, including performance arts in Atlanta, GA (Women On Fire) and theatre costume development in Austin, TX. At Clemson University, she won a coveted piano competition and graduated with a degree in textile science (1984).

We are sad to see our beautiful, intelligent and strong-willed sister leave this world.

“ Genie was my roommate at Clemson. We met at orientation and became fast friends. She was such a spark of light with her quick smile and wit, beautiful blue eyes, and that hair! She always was fun to go out with - assuming a fake accent and persona - she could captivate anyone. I lost touch for a bit but heard of her trauma from another college friend. Genie and I reconnected recently through social media and I hoped things were better for her. I am crushed she has left us.

“ Genie and I were in the same Girl Scout troop from Brownies to Cadets, but lost touch afterwards. We recently reconnected on social media, and I'm so grateful for that. My heart is very sad in the wake of this news. Much love to her family.

“ Genie was one of my dearest childhood friends and like a sister to me. Almost all of my wonderful childhood memories have Genie in them from building forts, to playing with Barbie’s and baby dolls, monopoly tournaments, birthing kittens, spend the night parties, my dads fried fish, music, boyfriends, kick the can, and so many more. Thank you Genie for all the rich and happy memories and for always being such a sweet and faithful to me❤️

“ I have wonderful memories of Genie from Briggs Elementary to Clemson. We shared many wonderful afternoons painting ceramics! Had been in contact since she moved back to SC but had not been able to get together. Sending prayers of comfort.
