“ My uncle Bill was one of a kind!!!! He was the absolute best.anytime it didn't matter what the day or event or circumstance,he could not only make you smile,but he would make you laugh,most of the time you'd laugh until your belly hurt. It just came so natural to him.I LOVE him so much and im going to miss him so so badly. I always thought even as a little girl he would always be here,no matter what,kinda looked at him like my superhero .

You see my Uncle Bill was like my father in a lot of ways,other times as I got older he was my best friend,when I lost my Mama,there was no way I could have made it without him,he was my rock and my sanity! My heart,my soul is so heavy he taught me so much yet I dont think he quite knew just how much I love and admired him! I feel blessed and so lucky to have had such a great man In my life,I feel lost Nd scared now,like a little girl,that I don't know what to do anymore.His absence has a great impact on me,for as I said I always looked at him as he will always be here.He was the baby in the family well since 1976 when my other uncle passed.see he's all I've ever known.that we played together,I've learned from him,and got strength from him. So many memories as I was growing up,yes I can recall and smile.most of all I remember his smile,his laugh,just his general demeanor,happy.

If you ever had the chance to meet him,and know him,I bet not one person can say much without a smile on their lips when recalling anything that was associated with him.you dont find people like him anymore.

So today as everyone is thinking of what all they are thankful for....im thankful to have had such a wonderful human being in my life that I got to say was my Uncle,my family.and though he is the last of family on my Mamas side,except for cousins n such,I am deeply crushed for a light went out in me with his loss. To say I will miss him is such an understatement.

The world is a little colder place without my uncle in it.

My uncle Richard will need me now even though he will constantly say he doesn't or he's fine.but I will honor him now as best I can for he is my family Nd I love him too.even though he puts up a hard front he has a heart of gold too.

So tonight if you will say a prayer or two for us as life will seem more difficult to bear because a candle went out in the world today, but I know he doesn't hurt anymore and he was ready to go. as painful as that was to hear too.

I'll ALWAYS LOVE YOU UNCLE BILL! FLY HIGH AND WATCH OVER US!

he'd hate i put this:

BILLY RAY FITCH

a legend even though he didn't know it!
