“ Oh how I remember Brenda , as children growing up we always called her Noonie. I was at Uncle Johnny's and Alnor's a lot , so we always played together with Darrell and Paula I always thought she looked so much like Bunchie. She was so good to Aunt Alnor when she was sick . I pray that your family will have peace from God The Father , the peace that surpasseth all understanding Lean on him at this difficult time in your life , his GRACE is sufficient !!!! RIP Noonie, we love you

“ Brenda you will be surrounded by loves both in heaven and here on earth. You . Roger and I were all born in the year of 1959. We Shared memories as a child. We even shared a class in high school.

Those were the beautiful moments in our lives. You are gone to soon I miss you like tomorrow

My heart is broken my prayers are with all of your family near and far An angel was born the day you received your wings sending love from afar
