“ One of my most cherished memories from childhood was spending time with my Aunt Brenda and her sister, my Aunt Deborah. They were teenagers and I was a little girl. I loved sitting in the porch swing on the porch of my Grandma Dodgens house. I adored spending time with them. They were such fun and the best part was I felt so loved by both of them. I have many more memories of Aunt Brenda. And I thank God for each one. Sandra Speed Keppler
