

Brenda McGee Watford

July 8, 1951 - June 6, 2026

Brenda McGee Watford, 74, of Florence, passed away peacefully at her home on June 6, 2026.

A celebration of Brenda's life will be held at 2:00 PM on Wednesday, June 10, 2026, at Effingham Church of God. The family will receive friends from 1:00 until 2:00 PM prior to the service at the church. A private burial will take place at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Coward, directed by Kistler-Hardee Funeral Home of Darlington.

Born in Coward, South Carolina, Brenda was the daughter of the late Advance McGee and Allie Lee McGee.

Brenda was the heart and soul of her family. A devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, she found her greatest joy in caring for those she loved. She cherished time spent in her kitchen preparing home-cooked meals, tending to her garden, and bringing family and friends together for fellowship and laughter around the table. Brenda's warm spirit, generous heart, and unwavering love created countless cherished memories that will live on in the lives of those who knew her.

She also deeply loved and adored her loyal companion of 17 years, Ms. Tinkerbelle. Brenda especially enjoyed spending time with her nieces and nephews and treasured the special bond she shared with each of them.

Surviving are her daughters, Amy Flohr and Angie Evans; her sisters, Gloria Jean McDowell and Marilyn (George) Nikolakakos; her grandchildren, Taylor Gainey, Gage Flohr, and Bryanna Evans; and her great-grandchildren, Emerson Gainey, Rylee Burbage, and Ellison Gainey.

In addition to her parents, Brenda was preceded in death by brothers, Lloyd McGee, Manley McGee, and Billy McGee who welcomed her into eternal rest.

The family would like to express their gratitude for the love, prayers, and support shown during this difficult time.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Florence County Animal Shelter in honor of Brenda's lifelong love for animals.
