“ Bryan became a friend after I became his patient. He was an amazing person who conquered his past injuries to become an aide to others needing help. Bryan’s compassion, insight and positive support helped me as well as hundreds of others- he always had a bright word for everyone. Bryan was one of the rare people who really listened, who cared for others and who worked hard to achieve his goals. I will miss him always and send loving support to his friends and family.

“ Bryan moved into our neighborhood just a few years ago. The introduction was established by Sadie who had wandered into our yard and demanded attention from my fishing husband. Since that time we have had the luxury of Bryan's friendship. We will miss the black truck in the driveway. The twins rubbing Sadie's belly, The tap of the horn and a wave as he drove by us laboring in the yard. But even more we will miss his smile and kind words. He was a great neighbor to us all.

We miss you, Bryan, Mike and Sue

I met Bryan when he first came to Florence. I'm one of his original patients, and I considered him more a friend than just a doctor. He was always a warm, welcoming soul. He had a smile that warmed you through. I will miss him terribly, and my heart goes out to his friends and family. I love you, Bryan. Julie Prommasit.

“ I'd like to send my sincere condolences to Bryan's family. My heart aches for the Wenner family. I first met Bryan way back in elementary school. He was a wonderful friend who was always positive and encouraging. I remember going sledding with Mike and Bryan on the hills next to our home. The countless wrestling tournaments, baseball games, and soccer matches. One day Bryan and I decided to go golfing. We didn't have a car, so we took my father's dump truck (sorry dad). Bryan was 15 and I was 16 at the time. I didn't have much in the way of golfing experience. So, we arrived at the first tee and Bryan hit a nice dive down the middle of the fairway. Of course, he was giving me tips on how to hit the ball (hand position, stance, he knew I was very new to the game). Mind you, I was the son of a masonry contractor; I was strong but had no idea how to hit a golf ball. Bryan stood off to my left at 20 yards and slightly in front looking down the fairway to keep an eye on the ball. I swung for all I was worth (I didn't want to disappoint my instructor, Bryan). Not sure how it happened but that ball headed directly for Bryan's head and hit him hard. After glancing off of Bryan's head the ball when another 70 yards down the middle of the fairway. Bryan said he wanted the assist (he is joking and I'm feeling sick to my stomach). He was trying to joke it off. I felt sick to my stomach because the ball had struck him very near his temple. He did not want to leave the golf course, he wanted to keep on playing. I was very worried and I think he was consoling me and trying to keep the attention off of himself. That was the Bryan I remember. As his head was swelling, he was trying to make me feel better. He was caring and compassionate no matter the circumstances. We lost touch over the years but it sounds to me like Bryan maintained his most important qualities (friendly disposition, ability to connect with others, desire to add value to others, and a big heart). I look forward to seeing Bryan again. I'm certain he is in heaven teaching, coaching, and caring for others.

“ I do not even know how to begin this Tribute for Dr. Bryan Wenner. He not only was our Chiropractor but, our Friend. Bryan was so smart and could talk about any subject that you threw out there. He always treated others with kindness and respect!

He not only was very passionate about his love for his Mom, family, friends, patients, co-workers but, also dogs. He loved all Fur Babies. Sadie was his pride and joy! Bryan would always light up when he talked about her! I know she misses her Daddy!

There was a little Yorkshire Terrier named Dallas that went missing that belonged to a friend of mine. Everytime he would see me he would ask for updates. Not many men would be that compassionate about someone else's pet. He actually would go out and look for Dallas to see if he could find him! That says a lot about his character.

He would do anything to help others and he believed you should always treat others the way you wanted to be treated! Bryan was very honest and his integrity was off the charts. You could talk to him about anything confidential and he would never break that trust.

Bryan would always tell my husband and me that he reminded him of his Dad. If I could have had a Son I would have wanted him to be just like Bryan. With that being said, I know that Bryan's Mom must be the proudest Mother in the world to know how many people loved and cared about her Son, Bryan.

I know that when he met Jesus at Heaven's Gate, He said " Well done thy good and faithful Servant." Heaven gained another Angel!

Bryan, we will meet again but until then, I will cherish our many conversations and all of my memories of such a great and amazing man! I am heartbroken that you are no longer on this earth but, I take comfort in knowing where you are!

I extend my deepest heartfelt condolences to Bryan's family and his wonderful staff in Florence. Truly we have lost a good hearted man who touched his world in many positive ways. My life is better for having met Dr Wenner. Though I often called him Bryan, I felt he deserved the respect of the title "Dr" because he certainly helped me with his adjustments and counsel - and so many others too! Just last month, he gave my husband the first chiropractic adjustment of his life. He loved being a chiropractor and it showed in everything he did. And I admired the way he built his business - a man of integrity and compassion who created opportunities for others as well as himself. I'm glad that I had the chance just last week to thank him in person and express my gratitude. Bryan, your presence will be deeply missed.
