“ Carol and I met back in 1989 and she introduced me to my husband of 33 years. She and I met at church in Charleston and became close, I only learned of her passing just recently. She was a beloved friend and I will miss her

“ I am saddened to hear of Carol's passing. I work at the Presbyterian Home and she was a joy to be around and everyone loved her. I spent as much time with Carol as I could because she was such an inspiration and never negative. She was just simply fun to be with. I miss her so much as do many of the other staff and residents. My heart goes out to her family during this time. You had a great mother and grandmother!
