

Cecil Braddock

May 5, 2017

Cecil T. Braddock, of Lexington, died on Friday, May 5, 20017 after a lengthy illness. Born on July 15, 1935 in Darlington County, South Carolina, Mrs. Braddock was predeceased by her husband Frank H. Braddock. Mrs. Braddock was a retired employee of K-Mart and worked for a number of years in the childcare program at Shandon Baptist Church in Columbia. She is survived by her son, Frank H. Braddock Jr of Lexington and his wife Rose. Mrs. Braddock has four grandsons, The Rev. Zachary Braddock (Brittany) of Columbia, Jesse Byrdic of Jacksonville, Florida, Sgt. Ian Braddock(Kayla) of New Bern, North Carolina and Lance Corporal Alex Braddock(Helen) of San Diego, California. Mrs. Braddock also has three great grandchildren, Braxton, Claire and Edward. She is also survived by her brother Wayne Tadlock of Lenior, North Carolina and sister Lynn NeSmith(James) of Darlington. The family would like to extend heartfelt thanks for the staff at Oakleaf Village and Lighthouse Hospice of Lexington for the care of Mrs. Braddock over the past several years. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be sent to the South Carolina Philharmonic Endowment Campaign, 500 Taylor Street, Suite 300, Columbia, SC 29201. The family will greet friends at Frank and Rose's home in Lexington on Friday evening from 6-8pm. There will be a Graveside service on Saturday afternoon at 4:00 PM at Grove Hill Cemetery in Darlington with the Rev. Zachary Braddock officiating, directed by Kistler-Hardee Funeral Home of Darlington. Mrs. Braddock was a loving and supportive wife who traveled with her husband while he was in the U.S. Navy to many duty stations around the world, including Bremerton, Washington; Sasebo, Japan; Argentia, Newfoundland, Canada; Norfolk, Virginia and Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Family and friends are invited to sign the online guest book at www.kistlerhard.eefuneralhome.com

“ Frank,

I was so sad to hear of the loss of your precious Mom! She was a treasure! She gave special love to so many babies at Shandon. Her love for children impacted many families over the years! I am so thankful she was part of my life! I am praying for comfort for your family that only God can provide!
