“ I haven't had the pleasure of enjoying Lynn's wonderful sense of humor and zest for life since we were young. We visited aunt Ruth and Uncke Lenwood offer and I always enjoyed playing with Lynn as she was so full of energy and loved getting into things. As a child that is very intriguing. She was a beautiful person inside and out and will be missed terribly by her family. I am thankful she is now well and happy after a long suffering illness. Her body is whole and no pain or sorrow anymore is a blessing even though the loss here on earth is hard. Prayers for all the family are being lifted up.

“ Diesel Diva, the road is gonna miss you. We are gonna miss you. I respected you as a mother, wife, grandmother, and a friend. You loved your family beyond measure and it showed. Your sense of humor kept us rolling and your laughter was infectious. Those late night laughs while we were running loads will not be forgotten. I looked at you like a sister. You will be dearly missed. I'm lighting a pink candle for you because I know how much you loved pink. Keep em laughing up there until we meet again. We'll take the loads from here.
