“ My son was a good good man he never once got in trouble his whole life he did not lie he made straight A's in school not once did I get a phone call home for any trouble. I will say this again Daniel never once got in trouble he was too good for this cruel world I will miss my son My Sunshine but I thank God Daniels with him because he deserve so much better than this cruel life the hard hard life he had. Thank you Jesus thank you my Lord and Savior for taking my baby home with you and I can't wait till you bring me home too.

It's Jessie and I love you..... feel like I am going crazy. Thanks to the Lord I will make it through. I know he is with our Lord. He was too good for this cruel life and he didn't deserve the hard life he had. I thank you for being so good to my son. My Sunshine is gone and I Will be ready to see it again. Lord willing it won't be too long.
