“ Barbie, I am so sorry for everything you're going through love you. I am so sorry for everything you're going through love you I remember when you guys came up to Michigan state with me in Coopersville so I have good memories of your kids when they were small. Glad I got to see Deanna in March even though it wasn't under the best visiting circumstance. Love and prayers of comfort for your hearts

“ Barbie, Chris and Christopher....I can't begin to tell you how very sorry I am to hear about this traffic loss. Dee Dee was a sweet, kind and sensitive soul. The first time I met her we were going to a car race....she was so excited to wear a pair of my shoes. I will keep you and your family in my prayers for the difficult days ahead.
