

Debbie Gainey

July 31, 1960 - January 2, 2017

Debbie L. Gainey (nee Grady) passed away in her home after an illness on January 2, 2017. She was born in Lamar, South Carolina on July 31, 1960, to Thomas Carol Grady and Margaret Lee Grady (nee Jones). She began working at the age of 14 at The Shrimper Restaurant, and also worked at Spirits Lounge for many years in Florence, South Carolina. She was married to Jeff Rowland on December 1, 1981 at Northgate Baptist Church in Florence. They were married for 11 years, and have one daughter, Jennifer Lee Warren (nee Rowland). She was also married to Leo Carroway of Darlington for the past 15 years.

She will be remembered as Debbie Doo: hard-working, bright-eyed, freckle-faced, full of joy, and fun to be around. She loved her family and her dogs, and she will always be a beloved wife, mother, and grandmother.

She was predeceased by her father Thomas Grady, nephew Larry Suggs, mother Margaret Grady, brother Donnie Grady, and niece Brandi Ray.

She is survived by her husband Leo Carroway; daughter Jennifer Warren (Lee); grandchildren Caroline, Jack, and Joshua Warren; sisters Denise Ray and Michelle Raffo; brother Daryl Grady; nieces Reagan Jackson (Jarmaris), Morgan Grady (Freddie Loftis), Sharon Grady, and Anna, Abby, and Maddie Raffo; nephews Kody Grady and Luke Raffo; three great nieces, five great nephews, several aunts, uncles, and a host of cousins.

A memorial service in Debbie's honor will be held at Northwood Family Worship Center (1100 East McIver Rd, Darlington) on Friday, the 6th of January at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation toward funeral expenses by contacting Kistler-Hardee Funeral Home in Darlington.

“ Debbie had a lot of freckles. That was cool cause so did her sibs. I'm the only freckle face among my sibs. Knowing I had cousins in SC that were like me gave me a cool bond.

“ I remember Debbie always having a lot of freckles. Which was cool cause so did Donnie and Darrel and me (I was the only sib in my family with freckles). Made me feel connected to some of my SC kin.
