“ Losing a grandparent is never easy, especially one as loving as this. Our five y/o spent time with her Great Grandma Suggs this past spring and remained glued to her side. She was immediately and completely drawn to her. This says a lot, as our girl can be kind of shy and apprehensive around those she doesn't know well. It just speaks to the warmth and love Grandma so effortlessly gave. We're thankful for this time and our memories of this special lady. She'll sure be missed. Rest peacefully, Grandma. We love you! -Love Cory, Megan, Maggie, and Lauri
