“ Devon changed my life that day she spoke to me in art class at Williams. I was new and shy, she was so bold and cool. Her friendship got me through some rough years, and we had a blast doing it. Thank you to her folks for always making me feel welcome in their house. Thanks to Devon and Desiree' for making me a little bit cooler. Devon I am so grateful for our friendship, and so glad you were part of my life.

“ I just now saw this while looking for Frank and Phyllis on the internet. remember when she was born. I was home from the Marine corps. Lost touch with Frank and Phyllis and then found them on a trip home. Now I believe they have moved again. If you see them please tell them LaurensSprings says hello

“ I was lucky enough to be in the birthing room hanging out waiting on Devons debut into this world. She was such a beautiful soul taken from us way too soon.

That's my dress in the picture. It looked better on her. She could pull off any look.
