“ Nannies, I just found this today. You've been on my mind alot and I was looking you up on google and this is what I found. I miss you more than you know I've missed you for quite some years. You were so very special to me and no matter what no one can ever take that from me. I plan on coming and visiting you and bringing you flowers soon. These days I'm married I have twin daughters who are 18 months old and a 5 year old daughter. Thank you for all the unconditional love and all your support it means so much to me still to this day. I wish you could have met your great granddaughters, but now that your in heaven I'm sure you've seen them. Even though you may not have known it I missed you so much after I left South Carolina and I just wish i could have had one more day with you. One day I'll be by your side in heaven and for now I'm just gonna keep trusting God and know that this Is all part of his plan. I miss you nannie, love always.... Krystal Lee ♡

“ I miss you so much Nannie. You will always have a special place in my heart. I remember the night we cried together when I told you how much I love your granddaughter. I told you she would never be alone again and that I will always love and take care of her. I promise you I always will. I love you and miss you and hope heaven is everything you ever dreamed of.

“ My Nannie... I miss you so much. Whenever I had doubts you were always the one to help guide me back to the book. To lean on our precious Lord and savior. Since you have joined him and all of his glory I miss you so much! More than words can explain. Sometimes I go in your room because I need to talk to you. You always knew exactly what to say to get me back on track. Through the Great, good, bad and the ugly I knew my angel of a grandmother would help me find my way again. I know you are dancing with Papa and loving being with the rest of our family and that keeps me going. I would give anything to hear you say "where is my hug today? " or "Goodnight sweetheart I love you see you in the morning. Don't forget I love you more!" I still feel you but I miss you terribly. I need your guidance still. I know you are watching me and I hope I make you proud. I was always your baby and you became mine. I love you always I love you forever. As long as I'm living my angel you will be. Please send me some love I could use to feel your embrace more than you know. I love you Nannie!

We used to so enjoy the 5th Sunday night song services with Dixie. She was so faithful to her church and was a beautiful, sweet person. Always enjoyed seeing her. May God bless all her family members and safely keep them in His care.
