

Edward "Eddie" Talbert Jr.

September 22, 2022

Edward Darrell "Eddie" Talbert, Jr., age 58 of Myrtle Beach, passed away peacefully in his sleep after a short illness. He was born on January 28, 1964 to the late Darrell Talbert and Kathryn Talbert.

Eddie, as he was affectionally known by his friends, was born and raised in Darlington. He graduated from St. John's High School in the class of 1982..During Eddie's high school career he was a well known football player that no one wanted to face. His goal was to stop a play and he didn't care who was in his way or how hard he had to tackle to accomplish his plan. He received many accolades during his football days beginning in his sophomore year with the 6AAA All Conference Award in 1981. He also earned All Conference his senior year. He attended Newberry College where he played football. He moved to the beach and would live there the rest of his life. But, once a Blue Devil always a Blue Devil, and he remained close to his classmates throughout his life. He went back to school as an adult and earned a degree in Sports Management from the University of Phoenix.

Surviving are a sister, June Talbert of Hartsville; three daughters, Lindsey (Nick) Reichley of Washington, DC, and Alexandra (Millind) Faunce of Maine, and Katie Wright of the state of Washington; one son, William Liebenrood of Texas; grandchildren, Declan Faunce, Sophie Liebenrood, Finn Liebenrood, Maisie Liebenrood, Patton Reichley, Winter Reichley, and Natalie Wright.

“Eddie” Talbert was one of the great ones. He and I were in the same class in high school. He was sharp in the mind, and treated people with super respect. My friend will be missed more now than he was in real life. Your true friend Jonathan Adkins.

“ Eddie’s mom and my mom were sisters so he and I got to hang out a lot when we were little. He and I would stand on the kitchen counter and get the can of strawberry Quick and make ourselves comfortable and enjoy our sweet treat. So much fun we had together....I wish we could have been as close as adults but life happened...no matter I’m still going to miss my sweet cousin. My condolences to his family. 🙏

“ One heck of a guy. We had mutual respect for each other as linebackers . Eddie was tough as nails . We found ourselves at the beach as bouncers during summer. We corresponding often and he was always optimistic . We shared scripture and uplifting quotes . He shared his sickness with me but never complain . Going to miss you on earth buddy!

I have known Eddie since third grade at Spring Elementary. He was a great athlete and always was a swell guy. No matter where I met him, He always went out of his way to see that everything was okay. Eddie will be missed dearly by family and friends.

Eddie was a good friend of mine in myrtle beach. He was a quiet person unless you wanted to talk about Georgia football. He also loved him some Ray Charles. He never forgot where his roots were at. Eddie took care of his friends just like we always took care of him. He was a great person whio will be sorely missed. RIP my good friend. Scott Polston.
