“ I spent many hours on horses riding with dee..we had some doozy adventures on trail rides around the state. She was always upbeat and we would laugh and tell each other our secrets and thoughts. i was so glad when her and willie were able to get a nice place in lamar and i spent a few times riding there and having dinner...man did she know how to cook! They started their own business and traveled quite a lot and we lost touch but i followed them on fb and was shocked over the news of how sick she was. Im grateful i got to visit her one more time....she was a wonderful, giving person and will be missed by so many
