

Gregory Scott Hasselbring

November 24, 1953 - September 6, 2023

Gregory Scott Hasselbring, 69, of Darlington died on Wednesday, September 6, 2023 at his home surrounded by his loving family.

Visitation will be held on Saturday, September 9, 2023 at 2pm at Darlington Presbyterian Church. The celebration of Greg's life will be held at 3pm at the church.

Greg was born in Watseka, Illinois. He was the son of the late Harry Wallace Hasselbring and Doris Long Hasselbring. Chamberlain High School was the school he attended in Tampa, Florida before going to college near Asheville at Mars Hill. Greg was always involved in football including in college where he was considered by NFL scouts. He received a bachelors in Economics. Greg was a oil salesman for Lubrication Engineers of 47 years and President of his own company, Lube Services, Inc. for 32 years. He was very active at the Billie Hardee Home for Boys and the Rotary Club and also an active member at Darlington Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are his wife, Kim Hasselbring; his daughters Taylor Zampier and Katelyn McCarty; his sons Grant Hasselbring, David Hasselbring, and Shaheim; his sister Jackie Kidwell; his granddaughter JoAnna McCarty; and many other loving family and friends. Gregory was preceded in death by his parents listed above.

The Directors of Kistler Hardee Funeral Home are honored to be serving the Hasselbring Family.

“ Greg Hasselbring was a tremendous friend who had an infectious smile and a laugh I will never forget. He was there for me during so many rough times and never let me pay for the lunches we had together at Cracker Barrel. I will truly miss his encouragement and friendship.

“ What a good friend has been to me over the past 50 years beginning at Mars Hill. Greg was more than just a good man, he was a caring Christian example of how a man should live and was always there when I needed someone for counseling and encouragement. Love you my brother and will see you soon. Kim know you are in our prayers.

Greg became a friend of our family while my brothers and I were students at Mars Hill College. He was one of the sweetest, most genuine people I have ever known.....and loved by many Mars Hill folks. My prayer for the family is that God will continue to hold you in the palm of his hand today and in the days ahead. His peace will sustain you.
