“ I have too many memories to share here , y'all ain't got that kinda time. So, I'll just say this.. Heather you were my best friend and my big sister and if you asked her who I was she's tell you that I'm her lil brother. You got me through so many hard times, it didn't matter what I was going through you'd make me feel better . Your the only woman that's stuck with me over 10 years and I was there for you the best I could but you were better at it. I miss you so much , you're the one I call when bad things happen and I can't call you when I need you the most. I will never let your memory fade , I Love You Sissy

P.s. You'll still be at my wedding , watching down on us xoxoxo

“ The lake will never be the same. I should have stayed Monday night and spent all the time I could with you. Who knew that would be the last time we talked... I was waiting and looking for you to come home to the camper Friday to only learn Saturday you never would again. I will miss you and all the fun we have had at the lake this year. I could always count on you to be my lake buddy.
