“Debbie, Brenda called me yesterday afternoon and informed me of your mother's passing, I was out of town in a meeting. Just wanted to send my sincere condolences to you and the family on her passing, I know it is difficult to lose a mother and what y'all are going through. “Helen & I spent so much time with each other when we were young. We were either at grandmother's & granddad house the week-end's with all our other cousins or sleeping over at one or the other's home. So many good times. When I moved away to Utah we didn't see each other often but we kept in touch. The world has lost such a special soul that will be missed by a lot of us that are left behind. I am sending prayers, Love & hugs to all her family. Jackie Crowley Curt
