

James Johnson Jr.

April 1, 1938 - April 8, 2025

“The Lord is my Shepard; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul, He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name sake.” Psalms 23: 1-3 James Johnson Jr (“Weaver”), was born April 1, 1938 in Darlington, South Carolina the son of the late Tilly Johnson and Zen Simon. He entered into eternity at his home on April 7, 2025 after an extended illness.

Weaver received his formal education at the Wesley Chapel Church in Hartsville SC.

James, was united in matrimony to the love of his life, Vivian Fox Johnson for 38 years. He retired from Hartsville Oil Mill with 40+ years of service. He also worked for the Lawton Family business for over 30 years. Where he was truly loved and cared for just like family.

To know him was to love him. He never met a stranger. His faith was strong while never complaining. He always responded “I’m alright”. He loved everyone. Weaver always greeted you with; “Ma’am”, “welcome”, “come on in”, “good seeing you” every time you saw him. He was a hard worker and a true provider for his family!

Survivors left to cherish his memory is: his wife Vivian Johnson of the home; his children Shaquille (Kari) Johnson of the home, Shirley Lucas, Cassandra Johnson, James Johnson and Joann Johnson of Hartsville SC; his 4 brother and sister in laws, a special son (Jerrod Eaddy) and special niece (Tomeka Williams) and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

He was proceeded in death by his mother, father and siblings.
