“ Eddie will be greatly missed. He is not lost however, because a person cannot be lost if we know where they are. He received his healing that the Lord promised. I will miss him, but I know that we all will see our dearest friend, beloved brother, and cherished son again. My warmest condolences goes to the family of this beautiful soul and encouraging spirit...Eddie Reynolds. May the peace and comfort of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all during this time. I love you all.

He was always a happy influence at Galey and one that was sincerely appreciated because we needed that. Wherever I saw him fishing or being one awesome Easter bunny he was always having fun and genuinely positive. He will be missed until we see him again.

Jean, Crawford, Debbie, Mikie and family I am lifting y'all up in my thoughts and prayers. Eddie is not suffering anymore, he is surely in the presence of GOD. I greatly admire you and your family for the care and love you gave him during this difficult struggle. Y'all did all you could possibly do but the cancer was just stronger than all of your and the doctors efforts. You all and indeed the whole town can cherish the good times spent with Eddie, I certainly will. Eddie loved Society Hill and I can sincerely say the whole town loved him back. He will long be missed and remembered here but he is living in the Lord's Mansion now, we can rejoice in knowing that. If you need me please call. MAY GOD BLESS.

To the Reynolds Family, I didn't see Eddie during his sickness. I wanted to remember him walking by office, driving in from work and watching him grow up over the last 35 years. All of you have been in my thoughts and prayers and I am here to help you in any way I can. Eddie will be missed by so many people but he is in his mansion in heaven now waiting on all of you. Please know I will remember all of you in the coming months with love and prayers.
