“ So sorry for your loss she was always such a beautiful and sweet lady. She was a part of my childhood growing up with the Dixie Cup Family. Her and my mom were friends and worked together there Betty Jean Dutton Jones. I know that group is reuniting in heaven now. That were all a hoot when they all were together. So many memories and I know she will b greatly missed. I ran into her in Darlington at roses one day not long ago and she still looked the same and we talked she even knew who I was too. Sharp mind for her age. You were all blessed Fly high sweet angel

“ I just had a conversation with Jeanette about a month ago in the post office she told me her daughter passed and I told her she was always a reinspector at Dixie that I would always remember. If she couldn't remember my name she knew we were a part of the Dixie Cup Family. My friend you were loved and forever be in my heart.
