“ I was only in her life for about 2 years. We became very good friends. Her and my wife were doing radiation treatments on the same day. I could tell right off the bat they Jen had a heart of gold. She was a fighter and a mom and a Nana. And believe me when I say she was great at it all. Jen you will be missed in real life, but never in my memories. Dance with the angels, and I'll see you in heaven. Lots of love.
