To family of Jill....I just saw where Jill passed away. She used to work for me & my ex-husband, Lyn Ham. The last time I ran into Jill was many years ago in Walmart. After that we lost touch and I'm so sorry we did. I loved Jill so much. She and I shared a LOT of adventures over the years. I am so sorry to hear this distressing news. I will send prayers for all of you especially Drew. I remember when she was pregnant, she was so excited. She loved him so much....prayers to all of you.

“ I let Jill through my mom when I was like 4, maybe 5 (I'm 32 now) and I remember Just like it was yesterday looking at her thinking she was a beautiful princess. Jill was a strong and kind woman, no matter what life threw at her, she ALWAYS had a smile for you and she loved her son more than life itself, Drew really was her prince and nothing or nobody would ever change that. She would give you the shirt off her back. Though she was not biologically linked to me, I will always consider her Aunt Jill in my heart. I don't know why she had to be taken from this world so soon but I know I'll see her again one day and I know she will have her big beautiful smile on. The world is a little darker without her in it, Jill was and always will be one of a kind. In all my years, I've never met another soul like her. Jill, you were loved by so many people and rather you are here with us in the living or not, that love everyone has for you is still right here! I love you Jill and you will be greatly missed.
