“ My dear sweet Johnboy, I can't believe it's been a year since you left me and I miss you every day. Our fur babies miss you too, whenever I drive your truck and come back home they get excited thinking it's you. I have had some very dark days these past 12 months but praise God, he seen me through. Every day I think of a different memory of things we shared and the crazy stuff we did. Sometimes I cry for days thinking of you, but I know you are in a much better place now and knowing this makes me smile. I love John, more than you ever knew

“ Hey Johnboy,
I celebrated your birthday yesterday by cooking your favorite dishes. I miss you Johnboy, nothing tastes the same anymore because I don't have you to share it with. Only you would eat my "bad cooking" whenever I was having a "bad day" and tell me it was good, I loved the way you would look at me and say, "Little girl you out did yourself on this dinner", I wish I could hear that one more time, but I know you were tired and ready, I just wasn't ready for you to leave me. I know that's selfish of me, but I love you and I miss you. I know that you are happy and no longer in pain, I hope you know how much you are loved and how much I miss you. Please take care of Mama Margaret, I know you two are getting into trouble, lol. I love you John and I always will and you will forever be in my heart.

“ I'm very thankful God gave me the opportunity to become friends with John in the early 1990's! John treated me better than I ever deserved...he mentored me, coached me through my 20's, helped me to learn how to talk to people as a first responder, and was a vital in helping me master the art of barbecue! John made a great impact on my life...and I hope God allows me to share his legacy with others! I will continue to be praying for his family and all of his friends!
