

John Victor Pace

March 9, 2025

John Victor "Vic" Pace of Florence South Carolina, age 69, born in Newton, Mississippi, passed away at Duke University Hospital in Durham North Carolina on Sunday March 9th. Son of late Eugene and Bonnie Pace

Victor is survived by his sisters Kathy (Tom) Ford and Eunice Sykes, predeceased by his brother Bud Pierce. Victor also leaves behind his daughter Katherine Pace and son Benjamin Pace: six grandchildren, Cheyenne, Connor, Shayne, Wyatt, Maddox and Riley: two great-grandchildren, Emmett and Thea.

Victor's hobbies included hunting, golfing, shooting pool. He played in golf and shuffleboard tournaments where he won and received metals as well as participated in other senior games. Victor loved spending time with friends and family, he loved jokes and making people laugh. Victor was the man to be there when you needed him to be, he was kind and quiet. He loved watching sports, no matter the team playing. He liked John Wayne and old westerns movies.

“ Dee and Cathy,

My daughter and I met you in the waiting area while we were waiting during my husband's surgery; and, you were waiting during Victor's surgery. We enjoyed meeting and talking with you and have thought of you often since that day. We just learned that your dear brother passed and our hearts are full of sympathy for you.

May our Lord wrap His loving arms around you and give you His peace and comfort.

*With our deepest sympathy,
Joyce and Natalie*

“ Victor was such a gentle giant. I met him in 1975 when I lived in Florence. He drove me and my hospital to the hospital when I had my son. I loved him so much. We stayed in contact all these years. Rest in peace my special friend. ❤️❤️💙💙
