“ Is this the Johnny Peavy that was in the Marines stationed in Hawaii around 1970? If so my wife "Maggie" was close friends with him, sadly she just passed away on May 21st. My prayers go out to the family Bill Reece billreece1949@gmail.com

“ So sad to hear of Johnny's passing. I will always remember him as a guy that was always ready to smile and tell jokes. He loved to hunt and fish, and found comfort in the great outdoors. He took pride in telling stories of his military experiences, so it's very appropriate that he was laid to rest at the National Cemetery in Florence. I lost track of Johnny the past 10 years, as I moved away from Darlington back in 2007, but now that I have returned, it's just not the same apart from his presence. Especially, as I recall some of our get togethers while attending Central Baptist Church in Darlington. As I continue to remember Johnny, he'll always bring a smile to my face.
