“ Momma, these days I'm trying my best to do what's right for my family and it seems like every step forward is 30 steps back. I just wish you were here like I do on most days, there's no amount of words that I can ever say to describe the pain it is without you here. I love you so much and wish you were here. I wish you could see your grandbabies, I wish you would know the laugh Raelynn laughs when she's actually excited and finds something funny, or be here while Cartiers learning words and talking and babbling, or when we finally get our own house and you could be proud of me. I just wish you were here. Everything in my life, I wish you could be here for. And be here for the kids, and see them grow and have a family again. Nothings been the same since you left and I wish it were better because I know that's what you would want but I try my best to talk to everyone left, even if both everyone of them are on speaking terms. I love you, rejoice with them up there and I'll talk again soon💔😞

“ Well mom...I guess by now you and grandma and uncle Danny have reunited. I just wanted to stop by and say that I missed you so much these last few days. I know this is all very deja vu. The 3 days, the crying non stop. I know I said it in my head and I said it in my heart but I'll forever live with the guilt of grandma not even meeting Cartier and I love with the fact you never got to meet either of them. Cartier Isaiah-Richard Allen, that's your grandson by the way. Turns out the dad definitely was a POS but that's apparently how I pick 'em nowadays. But Quasem has definitely been there for me, through my wreck, through my pregnancy and so far for the past 3 months of cartiers life and dang near the past year of Raelynn's. I just wanted to update you and I feel like at least talking to you sometimes helps, it's not the same, and it never will be but I love you so much and miss you beyond words can explain. Y'all rejoice up there and save us all a spot as I'm sure we're all ready to be there...I know I am.

“ It’s been a little minute since I’ve been on here to update you or talk to you. Your first grand baby was born on August 15th. Makes me happy that she’s a Leo like her grandma. Her name is Raelynn Denise, also after you. Idk what you think about me right now but I hope you know that I’m trying. Im currently pregnant with your second grandbaby...not by the same person, hopefully this one isn’t a complete POS. It’s also hard cause I think I found someone that I truly am developing heavy feelings for and my worst fear is that they do me wrong or leave me. And I don’t wanna go through that pain again. I know uncle Danny is up there with you and I know he’s his old self, his goofy self before the alcohol got to him. I’m sorry. I’m so sorry. This isn’t at all what you envisioned for me. I lived with father for a year or two but moved out before Raelynn turned 2. I am currently living with my friend who I’ve known a long time. And weve become closer and I’ve learned that everything I thought about her was just hearsay and that she really isn’t the way. I guess the truth is that you truly don’t know people unless you get to know them yourself. I’ve become more vocal with how I feel recently because I feel life is way too short. My roommate lost one of her childhood friends in a car wreck. She left her kids a few days before Christmas and I truthfully can’t imagine...I know you never wanted to leave me but I also know you were tired. As much as you talked about ending it, I’m forever grateful that you chose life for me over everything. I think about it too...leaving. The only ones that really keep me here are my babies. I hope I am the mother that you were for me for them. I miss you so much and love you so much more. Come visit me and your grandma babies. I love you mamma❤️

“ Hey momma, it's been a while I know...I come here sometimes and look over what me and aunt shell have wrote and told you. You're a grandma! But I'm sure you know that. I've been wanting to come on here but I get so sad everytime. God I wish you were here to see her. She's so beautiful and so happy and so good...maybe just a little spoiled but who's first child isn't, I miss you beyond worded explanations. I hope you talk to her...play with her...and come see her as I sleep. Please look out for my new family, I promise to teach her the morals and the things you taught me growing up. Because of you I am who I am...I know I made some mistakes after you passed and some you probably don't agree with..and I'm so sorry mom..I wish I could've been a better daughter for you especially after you passed. I love you and will forever have you in my heart..please visit me as well sometimes 😔☐

“ I thought I'd just come and see some things. I miss you all the time. Me and aunt shell were talking the other day and I know you were happy that you got pregnant with me. I don't know why I ever let these people tear me down and try to make me think different. I miss you so much and this life is definitely not the same without you in it. I was just thinking of you and I just wanted to say thank you for sharing the time with me that you did. I'm so happy that our relationship was so strong and I feel that I was your favorite. I love you so much mommy I miss you :(((
