PSALM 23: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

“ First off let me start by saying, I'm at lost for anything to say, I honestly have no clue what to say, just last week we were on the phone laughing and cutting up and now today my heart don't know how to take it, I keep wanting to think this isn't real. We were brother n sister, lived together for many years. As I'm typing this on your obituary tears are stream in down my face, you were my support in so many ways through anything I needed you for.my go to for anything I needed to talk about. I told you anything but my secrets. You never were good at keeping those..lol. it was just the person you were. You hated to tell a story! No doubt in my mind your walking the streets of gold right now, I just wish I could heal what Brianna was feeling..even tho I know all too well...i love you oompa loompa!! We shall meet again someday!! Rest easy my sweet Angel I love you more!!!! 🌸🌷🌻🌻🌻🌻🕯️☁️❤️❤️

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family of Kerri. I met her at Darlington County CAA Head Start Program several years ago when she was a volunteer. She was such a sweet, caring and wonderful young lady that would help any and everyone she could. May God give you strength today and the days ahead. You now have your "Angel" wings so fly high and rest in peace my friend.
