

Laura and Glenn McRae

October 15, 1956 - May 23, 2020

Darlington, South Carolina

Glenn Edward and Laura Beth McRae were both called home to be with their Lord and Savior.

A private funeral service will be held at Kistler-Hardee Funeral Home with the Reverends Charles Grooms and Sammy Byrd officiating. They will both be laid to rest at the Florence National Cemetery. Friends may pay their respects at Kistler Hardee Funeral Home from 3 until 5 PM on Wednesday, May 27, 2020.

They both loved the Lord and loved their church family at Darlington First Pentecostal Holiness Church. Glenn and Beth made a good life together and have left a wonderful legacy. They also enjoyed listening to their favorite Gospel Band, "The Burning Bridges". Glenn and Beth will be missed dearly. Surviving are their loving children, Laura Michelle Jordan (Andy), Mary Margaret Buck (Kevin), and Michael Edward Moseley (Pamela); Beth's mother, Beatrice Tobias; and their loving grandchildren, Matt, Taylor, Ethan, Mikey, Hunter, Dylan, Keaton, Montanna and AndiBrynn.

Family and friends are invited to sign the online guest book at www.kistlerhardeefuneralhome.com

“ Never once in the past 53 odd years did I EVER doubt that if I had called and needed you, that you would not have come. Our friendship and brotherhood was something forged in a fire and there never was a need for more than the occasional casual visit/call to keep as fresh as the first day. Give Beth a hug for us and tell Kenny hello – I'll see you sometime down the road. Love you!!

“ To the family: I know how much you were loved by both Beth and Glenn!. I know how much you all loved Beth and Glenn. Without you they couldn't have had their wishes fulfilled. Glenn was with Beth when she passed to the Lord and Glenn was in the loving arms of his son when he passed. I know both went quietly and are now together as I know they would have wanted it. I'm sad for the physical loss of both of these dear sweet people, but we have so much to celebrate for them.

What I remember the most is Glenn's love of God, Country and Family

I don't have adequate words to express my feelings for the loss of these two friends. God allowed them to go through many trials together and now they are triumphant. So thankful that they're at peace and together. Prayers for the family, especially thinking of Bea who was so well cared for by them.
