“ God has called so many of my friends that worked at Dixie Cup this year. When I read the name Lila Mae Paul, I said oh no another Angel. Lila Mae was my relief operator on Henry Hancock shift who let us take our breaks during the shift. She always had a smile and sometimes a joke when she gave you your breaks. She was short and sometimes I wondered if she could clear the jams on the machines, they told us you had to be a specific height to work at Dixie. Even after she retired I ran into her out shopping. Thank you Lord for the time well spent with Lila. Prayers are with the family may in time some of the pain you feel will be a little easy to bear.

“ Miss Lila was a loving, thoughtful Christian woman. She was a woman of Grace and beauty that came from deep within her heart and soul. She loved her family and her extended family. She was a cheerful giver and gave of herself with thoughtful actions when someone was in need or just because she wanted to. She was always kind to us. We always appreciated her thoughtfulness when she sent us her delicious cakes, chewies and other treats. She always showed concern and compassion to everyone. Many times during my mother's illness she would ask me how my mother was doing. This always touched my heart. She leaves a legacy of loving kindness, thoughtfulness and compassion that will continue to live on through her daughter Connie and her grandchildren. Our prayer is for God to bring comfort to Connie and the children during this time of great loss and sorrow.
