“ Linda and I were roommates for three years in Atlanta while teaching elementary school. She (and others) were instrumental in leading me to a personal relationship with the Lord. Additionally she was “the hostess with the mostest” who practiced hospitality as a lifestyle. I benefited greatly from her example and was privileged to spend time with her parents as well. Her dad gave me my first Bible; as a Gideon (and later international president of that organization) he was never bashful about sharing his faith. I’m happy to say I am now married to a Gideon!

I am a friend from her past. Met her in the Singles Class at First Baptist Church Atlanta. I tried to keep up with Linda, but unable to. I just tried again and saw her obit. Hostess with the mostest for sure. Loved her family as well.
Such a blessing to all who knew her. Every time I see a Gideon Bible, I think of her...just this week in fact. Love to all the family...
