

Llewellyn Fields Hart

April 1, 1930 - October 27, 2022

Llewellyn Fields Hart received the warm, eternal embrace of her Lord and Savior Thursday, Oct. 27, when she passed peacefully in her home. She reunited with her husband and lifelong love, Robert M. Hart Sr., to whom she was happily married for 64 years. Born April 1, 1930, Mrs. Hart was the daughter of Otto Roy Fields and Mattie Dubose Fields. Her faith in the Lord, a reverent love for family and friends along with her sweet soul and generosity were known to all. Volunteering for The Lord Cares ministry of Darlington became a passion of hers in recent years. Mrs. Hart and her family eagerly looked forward to vacationing together each summer on Pawleys Island, a tradition spanning decades. She attended Flora MacDonald College in North Carolina and later the University of South Carolina. Mrs. Hart was a Clemson Tiger, though, and after graduating from USC she lived in Clemson with her family for 10 years. She and her family later moved back to her old hometown of Darlington, where she became the first social worker for the Darlington County School District. She was popular amongst the students she cared for and was loved by her colleagues. She was a devout member of Trinity United Methodist Church. Surviving Mrs. Hart are her children: Robby Hart Jr. of Darlington; Lyn (David) Bush of Asheville, NC; Lou Hart of Darlington and her bonus "son" Gary Smith; and four grandchildren: Josh (Paige) Hart; Anna (Chris) McKagen; Corey Bush; and Tanner Bush. In addition to her parents and husband, Mrs. Hart was preceded in death by her daughter-in-law Teresa Welch Hart and brothers William Fields and Roy Fields. A celebration of life service will be held on Sunday, October 30, 2022 at 3 PM at Trinity United Methodist Church. The family will receive friends following the service in the fellowship hall.

“ Sorry we didn't know. She , Libby King, Mary Butler, and my Mom, Dot Truluck, worked with Olin Whitney to get TLC started. All of them worked there with love and compassion for the people that needed help.

“ Robby, Lyn & Lou, I am so sorry for your loss. Mrs.Hart was so kind and loving. She was one of a small group of women that made my husband and I feel so welcomed when we moved to Darlington and joined Trinity. She had the sweetest voice and smile. She will forever be in our hearts.

“ My love and prayers are with the family. Llewellyn and my sister, Orine Dixon were friends and both played basketball and loved all sports. She never met a stranger, loved her family and friends and gave from her heart. May God bless and be with you during this time of sorrow. 🌹🌹🌹
