

Mae Frances Robinson

January 3, 1935 - December 16, 2025

Mae Frances Robinson, known by close family and friends as "Frank", was born January 1, 1935. She was the daughter of the late McKinley and Nannie Lee Jacobs. She was also raised by her step-mother, Mrs. Pearl Coe Jacobs. She fell asleep peacefully in death on December 16, 2025 at her home. She was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on March 16, 1968. She was a member of the Darlington Congregation. She never missed a month of telling others about the good news of God's Kingdom. She had always shown unconditional love for her children. All who knew her well have feasted on her chicken bog, sweet potato bread and her homemade biscuits.

Mae Frances was preceded in death by her son, Celister Damon. Left to cherish her memory are her husband of 57 years, Eligah Robinson and her children, Jimmy Jacobs (Diane) of Darlington, SC, Edith Small of Darlington, SC, Charles Russell Damon (Luchreita) of Hartsville, SC, Ronald Damon (Schedale) of Winston Salem, NC, Phyllis Mark (Benny) of Lydia, SC, Harriet Gonzalez of Lauderhill, Florida, and Jasmine Damon (granddaughter of the home).

Also included are her five sisters, Catherine Jordan, Leila Jacobs, Janet McFadden, Dorothy Taylor (Randy) all of Darlington, SC and Doris Alexander of Baltimore, MD, a large number of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great grandchildren and great great great grandchildren, along with a host of nieces and nephews, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, as well as other relatives and friends.

The Directors of Kistler-Hardee Funeral Home are honored to be serving the Robinson family.

“ My heartfelt condolences go to you all. Your mother's beauty kindness and spirit touched so many, even those of us who didn't have the privilege to knowing her personally.

May her memory continue to shine brightly in the lives she inspired. I'm holding you all in my thoughts and during this difficult time.
