“ Well grandma, I’m so sorry I wasn’t there or even went to see you in the past few weeks since you been in the nursing home. I will love with that regret for the rest of my life, the fact you never met Cartier, the fact I didn’t call you enough or see you enough. I’m just so sorry. I prayed and wished you’d come back just so I could at least let you meet him. I love you so much and I know our relationship was never the best, believe me I know we’ve had our ups and downs...but anytime I needed you through a thunderstorm, my first time getting high, after mom passed, and uncle Danny, I just hope you are giving them the most hell and telling them all how much we miss them. I believe you are better and free of all the medicine. Wishing you could come back was definitely selfish and I promise I’ll look after aunt shell, lord knows I’ve been going through this for the past 6 years, I’ll make sure she gets through it too. As much as I’ve wanted to give up I truly don’t think I could...for the sake of the family I have here. I miss you grandma and I’m so sorry like I said. I’m glad we at least had our last conversation we did. And glad I got to say I love you at least one more time. 🥺💔
