

Milton Coleman Gandy

February 25, 1954 - July 7, 2025

Milton Coleman Gandy, 71, of the Dovesville community of Darlington passed away on July 7, 2025 at MUSC Health Black River Medical Center.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, July 11, 2025 at 2 PM at Black Creek Baptist Church, directed by Kistler-Hardee Funeral Home. The family will receive friends beginning at 1 PM at Black Creek Baptist Church.

Anyone wishing to stop by to pay their respects to Milton may do so between 3 PM - 5 PM on Thursday, July 10, 2025 at Kistler-Hardee Funeral Home.

Milton was born in Darlington County. He was the son of the late Harvey and Gracie Warren Gandy. Milton met many friends allowing his journey in life and will be missed dearly for his heart of gold. He was a member of Black Creek Baptist Church where he grew up. Milton loved God and singing gospel hymns.

Surviving are his aunt, Miriam Warren of Darlington; many lovin cousins; and two special friends, Carrie Lunn and Jackie Anderson.

Milton was preceded in death by his brother, Henry Gandy.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Black Creek Baptist Church, 137 Mont Clare Road, Darlington, SC 29540.

“ Mr. Milton was the enthusiastic piano player for the weekly bible study at the residential home in Hartsville (Colonial Place/Patriot Living). He said this gave him confidence to try playing again at Black Creek Baptist October 24, 2024. I posted video and photos on facebook and will try to attach a link and/or add them here. He was very sweet, loved gospel music almost as much as he loved the Lord. <https://www.facebook.com/jannelle.vansi/posts/pfbid031GZm3bx7r5jt83wf23R4oSY1yRjfoUWUtDa8b6pUGFryEYLErbBAPRtUtQgJ1ajjl>”

“ Milton was a faithful friend and member at Black Creek Baptist. More importantly, he was a follower of Jesus! Milton was willing and ready to serve in any way possible. He played the organ, served as an usher, and was the official bell ringer to begin and end Sunday School. He will be missed, but he is rejoicing in heaven.

“ Milton and Henry Gandy were close brothers at our church, Black Creek Baptist, in Dovesville. Milton always enjoyed playing hymns on the organ for us. He had such a joyful smile and would even sing sometimes. We are going to miss him. However, know he's enjoying walking those golden streets and seeing his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

“ Milton and his dear brother, Henry, enjoyed even the simplest pleasures with joy and enthusiasm. We have wonderful memories of them together with us on special occasions at DPC and later, when they moved “to town” just walking to the Pig or IGA - or just for exercise to “see the sights”. They made every moment together a time to celebrate life! May we do likewise!
