“ It's difficult to find the words to convey what Nancy meant to me. At the lowest time in my life, she was there for me and my daughter. She was the essence of a pastor's wife, a servant's heart and a giving spirit. When I heard that the Lord took her home, in my mind, I pictured her reunion with Howard and Elizabeth and that smile she always wore will forever remain.

“ Nancy was such a precious soul. She always made everyone feel special. My favorite memories of her was watching her stand behind Martha at the piano and sing. She would ALWAYS cry at some point during a song. Her love for the Lord was evident in everything. I can only imagine her joy at seeing her Savior face to face and worshipping at His feet. My prayers for you all in the coming days.
