

Nannette Hancock

May 28, 1936 - April 4, 2025

Effingham, South Carolina

Nannette Hancock, 88, passed away Friday, April 4, 2025, at her home in Effingham surrounded by family and friends.

Funeral services will be held at 11 AM on Tuesday, April 8, 2025 at Hebron Baptist Church, 8655 Francis Marion Road, Scranton, South Carolina. Burial, directed by Kistler-Hardee Funeral Home will follow in the church cemetery.

The family will receive friends beginning at 10 AM on Tuesday, April 8, 2025 at the church and other times at the home.

Nan was a military wife who supported her husband while he served our country. As a minister's wife she served her Lord and Savior and supported her church families wherever her husband, Bill would serve. She loved teaching children in Bible School and Sunday School. Her other ministry was serving The Disaster Relief Team in communities and states needing help. She was known to all that worked with her as mama. Her hobbies included crafting, painting and cooking her cinnamon rolls.

Surviving are her son, Rickey Hancock (Sonny) and daughter, Pam Stallings; five grandchildren, seven great grandchildren and three great great grands; and several special nieces and nephews.

Nan was preceded in death by her husband of 66 years Reverend Bill Hancock, daughter, Wanda Camp and son-in-law, Bill Stallings.

In lieu of flowers please honor her by donating to her Disaster Relief Ministry, C/O Hebron Baptist Church, 8536 Friendfield Road, Effingham, SC 29541.

The Directors of Kistler-Hardee Funeral Home are honored to be serving the Hancock family.
