“ We lived large on very little. Trisha was my best and dearest friend. We held each other up when we were at our lowest. She was the best. The world is darker without her. Ride well my lovely.

“ She was a good fun boss back years ago when she had the store at the flea market, she became my friend and was there when my girls and I needed her. She always loved my girls. She and I lost touch a few years back but I still thought a lot of her. She will be missed but never forgotten. Ridefast in the sky. Thoughts and prayers for all the family and friends.
