“ Mom, I miss you. I looked all over for this obituary and couldn't find it. I don't even want to say it's your obituary. I don't think I wanted to find it. It's too real and it hurts too much. You will forever be remembered, and I still make the coffee the way you taught me... with a little more. And I think of you each time. I know you know what that means. I miss you. I love you. Even after all this time, it's so hard to face this loss. ”

“ To my loving mother, you will always be my heart! You are now with The Lord—fully healed and at peace. I feel your joy and peace. May you receive unlimited blessings in Heaven and may you have unlimited joy, laughter, and peace with those who you have lost and are now with again. May The Great I Am keep you safe and protected. May He show you unlimited love—love that no one or nothing on this earth could ever come close to giving you! You deserve all of this and more! I will see you again, my sweet mommy! You are my heart! ❤️

“ Gary, sorry for your loss. I too have fond memories of Pat, you, your family, from back in the day at Palmetto. We had some good times back then and I can see Pat's big smile and sweet soul as I think back on her. Always pleasant and fun to be around.

“ I have fond memories of Pat and the family. She was a sweet lady. The whole family are sweet and kind like their mother. All of you have a special place in my heart. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I love you all.
