“News travels slowly to central Oregon. I'm just hearing about this, and I am floored. To Ellen, Sam and Emmet, your father was a great friend. Who else would surrender one of his puppies to me? He was a great editor and boss. He gave my career a boost in the 70s and chose me to succeed him, for a while, at Atlanta Journal editorial. I last saw him in 2003, still smoking, and he said a new doctor had told him, "You just might be one to get away with it."

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to Ellen, Emmet, and Sam for the terrible loss of your father. He was a talented writer, news editor, and journalist, and a member of the highly respected generation of journalists known as the “old guard.” I can’t imagine the depth of this loss. Your father always struck me as a gentleman who was perfectly complemented by your beautiful and charming mother.

Much love to you all,

Sibley

“ Sorry to hear about your loss. I have read the News and press all through high school at St Johns high from 1981 through 1985 and have started getting it in the mail two years ago. Prayers for you and your family
