“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Shipman. I remember when he attended Grace Baptist Church several years ago when Pastor Ronald Kelley was there. He was a very humble man with such a sweet spirit. He was called on to pray on several occasions and you feel the spirit as he prayed. He will be greatly missed but, heaven just gained a saint. I will keep the family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Mr. Shipman holds a special place in my heart. He and I were true friends. When we were together, I really took great pleasure in listening to his stories about when he would preach. Francis loved the Lord and enjoyed talking about Him and how He loved us. There is no doubt in my mind that this truly wonderful man is in Heaven this moment. I know that Avis, Paige, and Alan will grieve over their loss, but Francis is where we all want to be one day...with God. I miss him, our conversations, his prayer as we would join hands on every visit before I left. He would always thank God that I was his friend and he would ask God to be with me and protect me. Wow...he made me feel so special. I love Mr. Shipman and what a wonderful feeling knowing that he truly loved me. It was a blessing from God that I came to know him. Best of all...I WILL see him again.

“ In memory of the man I call "Pop". As my day starts today there is a void now, our day would start by fixing his and Ma's breakfast and make sure he gets his proper meds for the day and there always seem to be a story to tell from the past. Some days a story I have heard many times and some days one I have never heard. There was always a thank you from him for every thing that was done for him. He would ask me what I was doing that day and after my answer he would always say "I wish I could help you, as much as I wanted him to I knew he was no longer able to do that. I remember a day not that long ago (he was in his early eighty's) he called me one day to help him string up his butter beans in his garden. I get over there and what this man called a garden was about one and a half acre of land with 47 rows of beans about 250 feet long ! The polls he wanted me to help him put in the ground were landscaping timbers ! So we started and let me tell you he worked circles around this 46 year old man, there I am pouring sweat out of breath and I look at him and he has barely broke a sweat and moving right along with no problem. I think to myself what a tough ole man, they don't make like that any more. I love you Pop and missing you every minute. You will always be a part of who I am and the man I thrive to be. I know you are walking strong with God now and you are watching over all your loved ones. Knowing this makes smile.

“ Today at 3:34 am My wife watched as her Daddy slowly passed away to go be with the Lord Jesus Christ. She was there with him every minute of his final days. I would sit and listen to her sing gospel songs to him for hours at the time and every now and then she would stop just to say I Love You Daddy. She was the strongest daughter I have every witnessed as she was saying goodbye to her first love...her Daddy. The love these two shared for each other was greater than anything else. Her heart is now broken because she misses her Daddy so much yet she knows she will walk with him again with his new body and strong legs. As I watched her tell her Daddy that is was ok to go now I could see her heart was tearing to pieces inside but yet still had the strength to say Go Daddy..Go to your Heavenly Home. I know he heard every word she was saying by the expressions on his face. His eyebrows would lift up every time she kissed his forehead even tho his heart was beating slower and his breathing was getting weaker. His last words to her were mumbled but understandable as he said.....I Love You Too. Not too long after that he did indeed go to be with his Lord Jesus Christ. I know I will never witness a good bye as wonderful as that one again. Paige S. Guffey I love you with all my heart but it will never compare to the Love that your Daddy has for you.

“ Roger and Paige, Daddy was one of the finest men I have ever known. He was a True Soldier of GOD and shared it every opportunity. Always loved to visit him and Aunt Avis as a child and then the years of growing up. Didn't get to visit as often, but when we did it was always filled with laughter and good times. Will certainly miss the sweet smiles and cute expressions and him sharing the Goodness of God. Our love and prayers to all of you and especially Aunt Avis! They shared so many years together! Please know our love and thoughts are with you all. Betty, Wendell and Philip Carter Loris, SC
