“ Rhonda, I've known you most of my life and it seems strange now knowing you will no longer be in it. I have so many memories with you a part of them. I can remember the time I would miss the bus on purpose and Daddy would get up and take me to school anyway. I would stand in the car line and there you were a few cars behind him to pick me right back up and he would stop on the way home to get coffee and when he pulled up at the house we had already beat him home. You were always someone I could count on for advice or a good laugh. You will me missed by so many! You left way to soon. Rest easy now. Fly high, I know you and my Dad will be up there catching up.

“ Rhonda was by far the strongest person I knew or may ever know. You knew she stood her grounds without her saying a word, just one of the things I admired about her. She never met a stranger, no matter where we went, she was going to find someone to talk to about something, and all I could do is smile and say I told you this was going to happen. Rhonda loved her grand babies so deeply, and loved spending time with them, she even adopted my granddaughter Alissa and she's really going to miss her Yai-yai! Rhonda was a very big part of my family and we are all grieving this great loss, she was more than the love Of my life, and my fiancé, but, I lost my Very Best Friend and anyone who got to know that deep and amazing side of Rhonda! However no matter what we may be feeling this is truly a time to pray for the Hill family, because they have really lost a treasure. Fly high Rhonda, no pain now baby!!!

“ You were one in a million. You had this way about you that even a stranger felt comfortable with you. You were always there to help someone. You dedicated your life to helping elderly and you were so good at caring for others. You supported anyone in accomplishments! You are going to be so missed by everyone who knew you and loved you. God needed another rose in his rose garden, and a guardian angel of those of us here! Rest easy now sweetie. Your job is done! Xoxo “ Unexplainable and unexpected things happen and leaves us torn and confused sometimes but if there's anything you can do is look to the hills, all of your help comes from the Lord. Every answer, and every need he will supply. My prayers are with the family. Amber, you're a jewel! Stay strong.

“ Rhonda,Aunt Sandra loved you so much. You were so strong. You stood up and talked at Mark's Celebration of Life . I thought my chest would burst that night. I said I didn't see how you could have done that. I just wonder if there is one of the (7) left that will stand up and say you will be missed dearly. In case they don't, THIS IS WHAT THEY WOULD SAY. Rhonda you are the second one of the NINE PACK that has left way to early. We will miss you very much. I do know some of the strange things that happened thursday was a week ago is now coming together and being answered. One day your Family will find out exactly, what you were trying to tell us and what happened. In our hearts we think we already know. Until we meet again, I love you and will miss you so much. I can hear you saying right now (I LOVE YOU AUNT SANDRA) That will stay with me forever.
