“ I am so sorry to here of Robin's passing. She was one of my first South Carolinian friends when I moved here at age 11. Her big smile and southern drawl endeared her to my big big family and we never went anywhere without her. I was at her house or she at mine throughout our teen years. We grew apart during adulthood but I never forgot her. Rest in peace, dear Robin.

“ I am heartbroken to hear of Robin's passing. Robin and my cousin were friends when they were teenagers and when I would be there visiting, I loved watching them have fun. She was so pretty with her 60's hippy look - straight hair, bell bottom jeans and her cloth criss cross bag - and of course that million dollar smile. Great memories. To her family, please accept my sincere condolences. She will be greatly missed.
