“ Mr Earl was considered as one of my best friends. He was devoted to his church, his family, his friends, and to The Lord Cares Food pantry. Anything he needed me to help him with was done with a gladness in my heart.. I'm going to miss him terribly and especially miss him asking me to help him with something on his phone..he thought I was a genius at cell phones..lol. he was so wrong! I will miss the laughter and talks we shared. So hard for me to adjust my thoughts of him not being around anymore. He was such an awesome granddad to Michael. He wanted all the best In life for him . What a great dad he was to drive to Florida every few weeks to help his sweet daughter Michelle at her law firm. He loved his family, friends, and church. I'll see you in Heaven my friendbecause I know you will certainly be there..all my love and prayers to family.
