

Sharon Adele Elmquist

May 12, 2025

Sharon Adele Elmquist, 68, of Florence passed away on Monday, May 12, 2025.

Ms. Elmquist was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, a daughter of the late Donald and Norma Otto. Immediately following graduation from Our Lady of the Sacred Heart High School in Coraopolis, Pennsylvania, Sharon served in the United States Air Force for four years. Her Children and their adventures along with her enthusiasm for the Pittsburgh Steelers have her much joy.

Sharon was active with St. Ann's Catholic Church in Florence, South Carolina where her faith was a very important part of her life. She worked for the United States Postal Service, where she retired from after 30 years.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Patty Brown. Surviving are her daughter, Michelle Elmquist and son, Aaron Elmquist; as well as sisters, Cynthia, Carol, and Terry.

Memorials may be made to St. Ann Catholic Church food pantry fund.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be said at 10:00 am Friday, May 16, 2025, at St. Ann Catholic Church in Florence South Carolina. After a meal in the parish hall, internment of her ashes will be held at 1:00 pm the the National Cemetery in Florence, SC.

* Please have flowers sent to St. Ann's Catholic Church in Florence and not to the funeral home.

Today, I have been reflecting on the many engagements Sharon and I had together. In earlier days, she always drove to PA and I was privileged to see her on her visits in. We traveled together to see the Pope in Toronto over 25 yrs ago. We spoke on the phone several times a year with updates about our families. She never forgot a holiday or my birthday with a phone call or a special meme message. Her last text message to me was on Easter Sunday. She was my cousin and my friend. 🥹🙏
