

Shirley Ann Windham

July 13, 2021

Shirley Ann Windham, 82, of Lamar died Tuesday, July 13, 2021.

Graveside services will be held Thursday at 11 AM at Zion United Methodist Church Cemetery in Lamar. The family will receive friends following the service.

Mrs. Windham was born in Darlington County. She was the daughter of the late Jack and Elizabeth Lloyd Andrews. She and her late husband, Harry, were the owners of the infamous Pit Stop Restaurant in Lamar for almost 50 years. She was a member of Zion United Methodist Church. She enjoyed fishing and cutting grass.

Surviving are her son, Gene Windham and wife, Gwen of Florence; her grandchildren, Eric Windham and wife Amy of Lamar, Tommy Bochette and wife, Ann of Lamar, and Lindsay Gibson of Virginia; her brother Johnny Andrews and wife Susan of Hartsville; five great-grandchildren.

She was predeceased by her son, Victor Windham.

Memorials may be made to Zion United Methodist Church, 310 N Darlington Avenue, Lamar, SC 29069.

“Shirley was so much more than a friend. Spending every afternoon for the last several months sitting on my front porch just talking and our occasional outings will always be with me as some of the most special times in my life. She is going to be missed and more than she could have ever known she is and always will be loved so very much.”

“ Shirley was one of my favorite people! We have been not only family but friends for many years. Harry and Shirley cooked some “fine” food at the Pit Stop! She will be missed greatly around Lamar. May the family find comfort in knowing that she was loved by many. May God bless each of you. Bobby & June Jefferson “ Loved Miss Shirley. Everyone knew her as a sweet, hardworking, loving person, and a talented seamstress. My Mother and I thought so much of her. I remember the Pit Stop fried chicken box as my favorite for many years. She will be missed by so many. Sincere prayers for her loved ones during this time.
