“ There are so many memories that flood my mind right now. She was my absolute best friend when growing up. I spent more time at her house than I did my own. Her heart was as big as her. My funniest memory, now anyway, was when we were returning a shit gun from Randy back to my dad and I asked her could I shoot it once. She loads it and says sure. Little did she know I had never shot a gun so I throw it up on my shoulder, pulled the trigger and hit the dirt. She pulled me up as fast as I went down. My shoulder hurt like crazy for a while but she never told our secret. And I have a lot more memories that maybe I shouldn't share,lol. But this amazing lady was a big part of my life as well as her children Cliff and Hanna. I know you will miss you mom as will those precious grands, just remember you can see her again in heaven.

I remember Susie from Sonny Auction, she was very sweet lady. She was tough lady and you could always count on her.
